CHILD GOES TO MOTHER

Judge Geo. Gear
In Solomon's
Role.

Judge Gear has rendered a decision in the application of Mrs. Kupau for a writ of habeas corpus to secure possession of her three year old son, granting her the custody of the child. It appears that the woman's husband is in the insane asylum and his parents with whom they had been living, became very much attached to their grandson. When the father was taken to the asylum the boy's grandfather, K. K. Kupau refused to allow the mother to take the child, she having removed to her own parents' home. The grandfather said they had no legal objection to the mother having her own, but they had become very much attached to the boy and asked the court's permission to adopt him. As the mother insisted upon caring for the boy, Judge Gear allowed the writ of habeas corpus and ordered the grandfather to return the boy to his mother.

LANAI INJUNCTION STANDS.

Judge Robinson yesterday heard argument on the motion of defendant to dissolve the injunction in the case of Chas. Gay vs. Colburn and Hayselden. The argument was begun at 1 o'clock and taken up again at 4 o'clock after the jury had been excused. Judge Robinson denied the motion holding that sufficient ground had not been shown for him to set aside Judge De Bolt's order. Judge De Bolt had already denied a similar motion.

Judge Robinson began the hearing before a jury yesterday of the case of Nakulua vs. Schnack. The trial will be continued this morning.

THIRTY DAYS FOR CHINESE.

Yee Chew was charged with assault and battery upon a Chinese woman, found guilty and sentenced by Judge De Bolt to thirty days in prison.

HUMPHREYS BUTTS IN.

Judge De Bolt made an order extending the November term of court twelve days from December 2d, yesterday morning and ex-Judge Humphreys took the occasion to "butt-in" on behalf of Boyd. The Boyd matter had been passed upon and was out of the way when the court read the order of extension. Humphreys happened to be in the room at the time, and objected to the extension on the ground that Judge De Bolt had no jurisdiction to make the order, and was exceeding his powers. He stated that the objection was made on behalf of James H. Boyd, and the court promptly overruled it. As it is not likely that the Boyd case will be reached for trial at this term of court, because of the technical fight being made by the attorneys, it is rather difficult to see the motive of the objection to the term extension.

TAX OFFICE CASES TODAY.

The case of the Territory of Hawaii vs. Alec, D. Thompson and Jos. Woodward is set down for trial today. It will be the first of the tax office cases taken up, there having been five indictments returned against the two men. The total amount of money involved in the charges is small, but it is expected that the trial will occupy several days. Woodward and Thompson are alleged to have collected personal tax from Chinese and others, for which no accounting was made to Collector Pratt. Both men vigorously deny the charges and have employed several attorneys to defend them.

WOOD MAKES ANSWER.

An answer was filed yesterday in the case of J. W. Bergstrom vs. J. Q. Wood wherein the defendant denies that he was to act as agent for Bergstrom to buy twenty-five shares of Waiialua Agricultural Co. at $200 a share. Wood alleges that he sold to plaintiff twenty-five shares for $5000 for which plaintiff gave him note with interest at 8 per cent. The stock was retained as security together with sixteen shares of the Bergstrom Music Co. Defendant also denies that interest was paid upon the $5000 note and admits that he refused to return the note.

THE ISENBERG ESTATE.

The will of the late Otto Isenberg was filed yesterday. W. Pfothner and Herman Schulze are named as executors and the value of the estate is given as $184,945. The widow is given a life interest in one-third of the property, the remainder to go to the nine children. The estate consists of King street property worth $15,000, insurance $10,000, two $1,000 notes, bonds valued at $23,000 which have been set aside as dower for two married daughters, 730 shares of Kekaha Sugar Co. stock and 454 shares of Pioneer Mill Co.

OVERDUES IN AWFUL WEATHER.

During the succession of gales the officers and crew of the vessel had a tremendous amount of work to do and many precautions had to be taken to prevent the water from reaching the cabins.

The vessel carries about ninety passengers for Australia and brought the following for this port: Mrs. Davies, Miss Davies, T. Davies, Mrs. Davies' maid, Mr. Cohen, Mr. Lant, Mr. Pontius, Miss Sayers, Dr. Berger, Capt. Roth, Mr. McKay, T. Hill, Mrs. A. Doyle, K. Lakman, Mr. Hallgren.

The steamer will sail for the Colonies at noon today.

OTHER OVERDUE ARRIVES.

The overdue freighter Tampico from Seattle, via Roche Harbor, arrived off port last evening after having had a very hard seventeen days' passage from Seattle. She encountered many gales but from what could be learned last night suffered no severe damage.
